APPENDIX B

University of Illinois at Chicago
Consent to Release Education Records

Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, the University cannot disclose personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records without the student’s written consent, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. A parent does not have the automatic right to view his/her child's records without the express written consent of the student, unless that parent can provide proof that the student is still a dependent for income tax purposes. See the UIC Guidelines and Procedures Governing Student Records for further explanation of the student’s privacy rights.

Students may grant any third party (e.g. spouse, parent, and/or sponsor) permission to access his/her education records or any portion thereof by completing this form and returning it to the appropriate records custodian (See section III of the UIC Guidelines and Procedures Governing Student Records).

I, ____________________________________________, authorize the release of
